5. DELIVERY

- (a) Unless otherwise stated on McDowall Engineering's quotation or on a delivery docket, the place for delivery of the goods shall be at McDowall Engineering's premises.
- (b) In the event that the customer requires delivery of the goods to the location nominated by the customer, the cost of delivery shall be paid by the customer and shall be charged at the rate expressed in the McDowall Engineering's written quotation, or if there is no rate expressed or no quotation, then at such rates as McDowall Engineering in its discretion may determine.
- (c) It shall be the customer's responsibility to be in attendance at the site and at the time arranged for delivery and to make available a suitable area at which to off-load the goods. In the event that the customer or his agent is not in attendance at the site and at the time arranged for delivery, or in the event that there is not suitable area to off-load the goods McDowall Engineering reserves the right to:
 - (1) Off load the goods at the nearest point suitable to off load the goods, in which such case McDowall Engineering shall not be responsible for any loss or damage to the goods arising there from or
 - (2) Return the goods to McDowall Engineering's premises in which such case the customer shall pay the additional cost of the attempted delivery and the rates charged to or by McDowall Engineering.

6. RETURNS/CLAIMS

No exchanges or refunds will be given after 14 days has elapsed from receipt of goods by the customer. Prior authorisation must be obtained before returning any goods. All returns must be accompanied by the original delivery docket or invoice number along with a reason for return. No request for credit will be processed unless this documentation is received. Freight must be prepaid on all returns unless they are goods supplied incorrectly or are faulty. In such cases McDowall Engineering's nominated carrier is to be used. We will not accept responsibility for freight costs incurred either by returns sent without authorisation or goods not returned by our specified carrier. A handling charge of 15% will apply to all returns except of course if they are goods supplied incorrectly or prior authorised warranty claims.

7. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Except as provided below, all express and implied warranties and conditions under statute law as to description, quality, suitability, or fitness of any goods for any purpose or as to design, assembly, installation, materials or otherwise are hereby expressly excluded. McDowall Engineering shall not be liable for physical or financial injury, loss or damage of any kind arising out of the supply, installation or operation of any goods or arising out of contract or negligence or in any way whatsoever.

McDowall Engineering's liability for trade and non consumer sales for a breach of condition or warranty implied by Part V division 2 of the trade Practices Act 1974 (other than Section 69) is limited to any one or more of the following:

- (i) The replacement of the goods or the supply of equivalent goods;
- (ii) The repair of the goods only;
- (iii) The payment of the cost of replacing the goods or acquiring equivalent goods;
- (iv) The payment or the cost of having the goods repaired.

Nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall be read or applied so as to exclude, restrict or modify any condition, warranty, guarantee, right or remedy implied by the law (including the Trade practices ACT 1974) and which by law cannot be excluded, restricted or modified.
